

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions have illustrated the dangers caused by a media increasingly dominated by corporate interests. Sinclair's use of the public airwaves free of charge must be in support democratic dialogue. The recent experience with Sinclair illustrates the need to reform our laws. We must ensure that the laws regulating media ownership serve the needs of the people and the democratic institutions in this country, not the needs of big business and corporations.

Thank you.